You're Invited to: A Walk in the Woods Who Goes There? Wildlife Tracking Workshop with Ed Sharron of the National Park Service

March 10, 2018 | 10 AM – 1 PM

Shrewsbury Meeting House, 88 Lottery Rd, Shrewsbury, VT 05738

$10 suggested donation to benefit the Shrewsbury Conservation Commission educational programming*

 Eligible for CFE credits from SAF, assigned 3.0 category 1 CFE credits.*

Who's walking in the woods? Join us for this 3-hour workshop on Saturday, March 10th from 10 AM to 1 PM led by National Park Service Science Communication Specialist, Ed Sharron. Learn the tracks and signs of many common Vermont mammals that you may find in the woods of Shrewsbury. We may spot tracks of fisher, red fox, bobcat, and many more possible surprise guest as we trek across old wood roads up to the Pinnacle.

We will begin the workshop with an indoor discussion, and then head outdoors to put your new skills to the test. All ages are welcome! Please dress appropriately for outdoor activity, and bring a water bottle, snacks, and snowshoes, footwear traction, or trekking poles. If you need snowshoes, let us know.

Since 1999, Ed Sharron has worked as a park ranger in several of our country's beautiful national parks, including Glacier NP, Voyageurs NP, and Marsh-Billings-Rockefeller NHP. Ed has been leading wildlife tracking programs for schools, workshops, and the National Park Service for more than 10 years.

Registration required as space is limited. Register online at vermontwoodlands.org/walk, or RSVP to Silvia at info@vermontwoodlands.org or call 802-747-7900. The Shrewsbury Meeting House is located at 88 Lottery Road in Shrewsbury, VT. The event will only be cancelled or postponed in the case of bad weather.

This event is Co-Sponsored by the Shrewsbury Conservation Commission and the Vermont Woodlands Association.
